SHLOKA NATH

CEO, INDIA CLIMATE COLLABORATIVE

<https://indiaclimatecollaborative.org/>

Shloka Nath is a leading force in accelerating climate action and sustainable development in India. She is the CEO of the India Climate Collaborative (ICC), a non-profit organization dedicated to mobilizing philanthropic capital to drive high-impact solutions for the planet. The ICC's mission is to connect funders with solutions that restore our planet, build an equitable future, and help India meet its crucial development goals.

Prior to her role at the ICC, Shloka led the Sustainability and Policy & Advocacy portfolios at Tata Trusts, one of India's pre-eminent philanthropic foundations. Her deep commitment to sustainability also led her to co-found and serve as the Managing Partner of Sankhya Women Impact Funds, a gender-lens fund with a focus on sustainability.

With a foundation built on a decade as a journalist at the BBC, NDTV, and Forbes, Shloka brings a powerful voice and perspective to complex issues. She holds an MPP from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government and a BSc from The London School of Economics.

A respected voice in environmental and cultural preservation, she is also the author of "Hidden India: Journey to Where the Wild Things Are" and serves as the Vice President of the Bombay Natural History Society and a board member of IIT Madras' Energy Consortium.

Ms. Nath is uniquely positioned to address how we can bridge capital, policy, and grassroots action to build a sustainable and equitable future for all.
